

АНГЛИЙСКИЙ ЯЗЫК

Вариант 3

I. Use the correct tense-forms of the verbs in brackets.

1. Did I tell you about how Jane (to get on) at college?
2. When the furniture (to deliver)?
3. The stone (to; sink) the minute it (to hit) the water.
4. Bruce tells, me he (not to have) a holiday this year yet,
5. Those pyramids (to built) around 400 AD.
6. I (to learn) yesterday that his car (to break) down.
7. I (to be) married to you for sixteen years and I still (not to know) what (to go on) inside your head.

II. Choose the right article.

1. We never eat... white bread at... home.
2. Four people were taken to ... hospital after ... fire at their home early this morning. They were sent ... home after some treatment for... minor burns.
3. -Who's that girl over there? - Oh, that's Susan. She's one of... girls I work with. She only started ... week ago.
4. How do you like... weather today, Mr. Hope?
5. My granddad was wounded during ... war.

III. Circle the suitable preposition.

1. Who's the man (at, in, on) a funny coat over there?
2. Stop talking to me (with, by, in) that stupid voice.
3. Would you like to go (on, for, at) a swim or is it too cold (to, with, for) you?
4. Please fill in the form (by, with, in) ink.
5. I like walking (under, in, by) the rain.
6. He hasn't written to me (for, since, from) September.

IV. Circle the suitable pronoun.

1. I don't have (something, anything, nothing) to do this afternoon.
2. Some of (them, they, their) must work to earn money.
3. The Allans don't have (many, much, plenty) money.
4. Jane goes to the library (some, every, all) week.
5. One boy played the guitar while two (other, others, another) sang.

V. Put the words in the right order.

1. dance/all/the/for/done/the/decorating/juniors/have/the.
2. ago/I/out/cat/let/the/hour/an.
3. badly/yesterday/you/played/don' t/that/agree/ team/the?

VI. Choose the right variant

- |                       |                             |
|-----------------------|-----------------------------|
| 1. Where's the money? | 2. Mary dislikes mushrooms. |
| a) I've spent them.   | a) So do we.                |
| b) Here they are.     | b) Neither do we.           |
| c) It's in the purse. | c) Neither we do.           |

VII. Circle the appropriate variant.

(Rising, raising) a puppy is not (easy, light). My brother and I have (found, founded) that first we (have, must) to protect anything chewable, (like, as) a shoe (lying, laying) on the floor. (Rising, raising) costs of veterinary (fees, fines) and dog food (make, do) it expensive to (keep, hold) a puppy. But the effort will seem (justifying, justified) when we all (sit, seat) back and enjoy a healthy, (good, well)-trained dog as a member of the family.

АНГЛИЙСКИЙ ЯЗЫК

Вариант 4

I. Use the correct tense-forms of the verbs in brackets.

1. He (to apologize) saying he (not to mean) to hurt us.
2. My sister is very upset; she (not to invite) to the party.
3. When I (to get) into the car this morning I (to find) that the radio (to steal).
4. Will you look after the kids while I (to go) shopping?
5. This is my new car. It (to run) very well.
6. I hope you (not to throw) away the present Uncle Stanley (to give) you for your birthday.

II. Choose the right article.

1. You can keep ... book because I won't take it back to ... library until... end of... month.
2. Has anyone left ... message for me in ...morning?
3. ... people from ... warm countries generally have ... hard time getting used to the winter in ... Belarus.
4. .... poorest people in ... country live in this area.

III. Circle the suitable preposition.

1. I was really frightened (by, with, to) death.
2. She is not very good (on, in, at) cooking.
3. Would you care (of, for, at) a cup of tea?
4. Stop looking (to, on, at) me like that - it's getting (at, on, in) my nerves.

IV. Circle the suitable pronoun.

1. You don't need to go shopping - we've got enough food for supper - (few, little, a few) eggs and (a few, a little, little) bread and cheese.
2. Don't say (nothing, something, anything).
3. (Your, yours) car isn't as fast as (my, mine).
4. Would you like the red scarf or the blue one? - (Both, all, everything).

V. Put the words in the right order to make up a sentence.

1. Boston/was/in/Jack/lived/since/born/has/he.
2. isn't/more/my/living/any/married/us/sister/near.
3. sweet/the/tasted/lemonade.
4. her/Sally/class/is/than/taller/any/girl/other/in

VI. Choose the suitable response.

- |                               |                        |
|-------------------------------|------------------------|
| 1. Can I give anyone a lift?  | 2. Where are you from? |
| a) Oh, it's very kind of you. | a) From the library.   |
| b) Give it to me.             | b) It doesn't matter.  |
| c) Don't.                     | c) From Canada!        |

VII. Circle the appropriate variant.

I'm Anna Gonzales from Brazil. (It, there) is eight years (since, from) I started to learn English. My (bigger, biggest) problem is pronunciation. (I'd love, I love) listening to English pop music (which, what) is a (great, large) (way, road) of learning new (vocabulary, dictionary). My dad's a businessman and he (uses, used to) English all the (time, period). He (speaks, talks) it (fluent, fluently).